Your Return Rights

If your order is unexpectedly not satisfactory, you can return it in original packaging, without explanation, to www.IconEyewear.eu. You can send the return shipment to our address as mentioned above. We exchange the item or you will receive, if desired, the purchase amount within a maximum of 14 days including the original shipping and handling costs (if charged). The cost of getting your return to us, is for your own account. In order to guarantee a quick settlement, please complete this form clearly. If it is not clear to us which return request it is, it is difficult for us to process your return. After the trial period of 14 days (from the delivery of the item) has expired, the purchase agreement becomes a fact. Unless the products have since been returned in good condition. Use and/or damage to the items will make the purchase final, even when you return it.
